Reports that 50,000 bushels of Cans-dian wheat had been purchased for importation to Minneapolis attracted con-siderable atention here, it was said prices based on May deliveries permitted such imports to be effected at a profit. Other bearish factors included a decline in Liverpool quotations. Cash handlers here bought 200.000 hushels of cash wheat to arrive from Missouri river markets. Deliveries on May contracts here to-day otalled 151,000 bushels. Today's re-ceints of wheat here totalled 140 car-

TO THE PUBLIC

We have made a thorough investigation into the merits of the campaign being conducted in this state in the name of the International Magazine Company, by ex-service men, in co-operation with the American Legion Auxiliary.

We heartily endorse this campaign, as it is of real benefit to local ex-service men, both unemployed and disabled. We ask the public to give these veterans their patronage and in this way help relieve the unemployment situation among ex-service men and at the same time benefit the disabled men.

For your protection against imposters each of these ex-service men carries a Credential Card on which is his photograph and signature of the local American Legion.

This campaign, employing only local ex-service men, has the approval of the local Chamber of Commerce, J. J. O'Rourke, Secretary.
